Dear President, dear friends in Football,

It was with immense sadness that I learnt of the tragedy in Oslo and Utoeya which resulted in the loss of so many lives.

That so many people should lose their lives is incredibly hard to understand, whilst the devastation in your capital city is equally tragic.

On behalf of the worldwide football family, I extend my condolences and deepest sympathy to the people of Norway and its football family at this harrowing time.

I wish them strength and fortitude for the days that lie ahead.

Yours Sincerely,

Joseph S. Blatter
