

- Association founded 1901
- Affiliated to FIFA in 1907

Flag

Association emblem

World map

Football in the Czech Republic

Sport fans in the Czech Republic are spoiled. They can look forward to watching a world-class team competing in every season of the year – in summer, their national football team that has been a member of the European and world elite for decades and, in winter, their revered ice hockey team. It is not therefore clear which sport holds the upper hand in the region. Both types of sport enjoyed generous government support in years gone by, sprouting a series of impressive triumphs and a flurry of players around the world. Some players who earned their spurs in Czech clubs still play for major teams, especially in Europe. This high standard is a legacy that has been fine-tuned by taking part regularly in major final competitions and notching up several victories in various categories. The resultant success story propels them to even greater exploits.

Goal project

At its meeting on 17 February 2004, the Goal Bureau added the Czech Republic to the list of countries that may submit a project to be funded by Goal. The Football Association of Czech Republic is currently examining a number of project proposals and is due to submit a request to the Goal Bureau ahead of the meeting in September 2006.

Financing of Goal project

Project

Type of project still unknown

Project approved on

Association selected on 17 February 2004

Status

In planning

Use of FAP funds

- Association founded 1901
- Affiliated to FIFA in 1907

Flag

Association emblem

World map

Football in the Czech Republic

Sport fans in the Czech Republic are spoiled. They can look forward to watching a world-class team competing in every season of the year – in summer, their national football team that has been a member of the European and world elite for decades and, in winter, their revered ice hockey team. It is not therefore clear which sport holds the upper hand in the region. Both types of sport enjoyed generous government support in years gone by, sprouting a series of impressive triumphs and a flurry of players around the world. Some players who earned their spurs in Czech clubs still play for major teams, especially in Europe. This high standard is a legacy that has been fine-tuned by taking part regularly in major final competitions and notching up several victories in various categories. The resultant success story propels them to even greater exploits.

The second Goal project

As a result of delays in purchasing a site, the Czech Republic's first Goal project was not launched until 2009. Once this obstacle had been overcome, the Football Association of Czech Republic wished to undertake a second project in order to complete the construction of the complex housing the administrative headquarters and technical centre. The Goal Bureau approved the second project which will involve the modernisation of the association's infrastructure.

Financing of Goal project

Project

Construction of a technical centre

Project approved on

1 December 2009

Status

Implementation

Financed by

Goal	USD	400,000
Association	USD	500,000
Confederation	USD	1,250,000
Total cost	USD	2,150,000

Use of FAP funds

Football education and courses	No of courses until 1990	1991	1992	1993	1994	1995	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
FUTURO III regional courses
Refereeing (men and women)
Coaching (men)
Coaching (women)
Administration and management
Football medicine																		●
Seminars
Women's football																			●	●
Futsal
Com-Unity
MA Seminars
MA courses
Administration
Refereeing (men and women)
Coaching (men and women)
Beach soccer
Futsal
Olympic solidarity coaching courses		●								●
Development courses and academies (1975 - 1990)	0
FUTURO I-II courses for all football branches

●: Course host country

□: Course participant in another country

Women's football

When, in 1995, today's FIFA President said "The future of football is feminine", it was more than mere lip service. It reflected a strong belief in the huge potential that women's football has to develop. Ever since, FIFA has given targeted support for the efforts of associations who offer women the same opportunities to develop as male players. Launched in 1998, FIFA's Financial Assistance Programme (FAP) introduced a requirement in 2004 for the associations and confederations to invest at least 4% of their FAP funding into women's football. This threshold was increased to 10% in 2005. On top of this commitment, FIFA also promotes the women's game in more general ways by directly financing women's matches and organising competitions and symposiums. Thanks to its development programmes, FIFA is also playing an active role in the training of administrators, coaches, referees and sports doctors.

Sparta Praha - 2008 women's champions and cup winners

Does an organised women's football set-up exist?	yes
If so, since when?	1966
From which age on, players are registered?	6
Women's teams (open or over 16 years)	540
Women's teams (below 16 years, youth)	182
National competition (or women's league)	yes
Regional competitions	yes
University competitions	no
School competitions	no
Futsal competitions	yes
National "A" team	yes
National youth teams: age categories	U-19

FIFA women's football seminar, 2008