

- Association founded 1934
- Affiliated to FIFA in 1974

Flag

Association emblem

World map

Football in Liechtenstein

Football is clearly the number one sport in Liechtenstein in terms of the number of active players and public and media interest. Two events stand out in the history of Liechtenstein football. On 29 March 2003, the Liechtenstein national team lost 2-0 to England in a close-fought encounter. That match stood out for two reasons. First of all, the country was challenged to meet all of the necessary security arrangements for the match. Secondly, the national team impressed with its performance against the favourites from England, and was rather unfortunate not to record a better result. More recently, the Alpine nation has recorded credible results against top sides with increasing frequency, most likely as a result of improving standards across the game as a whole. In July 2003, the European U-19 Championship was held in Liechtenstein. This small country organised the event to perfection, and was rewarded with some excellent football.

The Goal Project

After a lengthy search, the Liechtenstein football association has finally found an appropriate place to set up permanent home. On 22 September 2004, the Goal Bureau endorsed the purchase of an existing property (with adjoining land) that will allow the Liechtenstein FA to increase the efficiency of its administration. With no rent to pay in future, the association will have extra funds at its disposal to launch a whole host of new initiatives. In addition to support from Goal, the project has also benefited from funds from UEFA's HatTrick programme and the association's own coffers.

Financing of Goal project

Project

Association headquarters in Vaduz

Project approved

22 September 2004

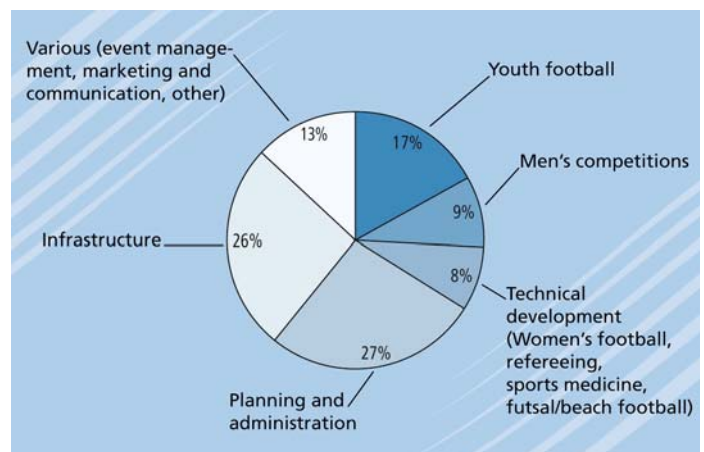

Status

Opened on 27 April 2006

Financed by

Goal	USD	400,000
Confederation	USD	1,850,000
Total cost	USD	2,250,000

Use of FAP funds

Football education and courses

	No of courses until 1990	1991	1992	1993	1994	1995	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
FUTURO III regional courses
Refereeing (men and women)
Coaching (men)
Coaching (women)
Administration and management
Football medicine
Seminars
Women's football
Futsal
Com-Unity
MA Seminars
MA courses
Administration
Refereeing (men and women)
Coaching (men and women)																	●
Beach soccer
Futsal
Olympic solidarity coaching courses
Development courses and academies (1975 - 1990)	1								□
FUTURO I-II courses for all football branches

●: Course host country □: Course participant in another country

Women's football

When, in 1995, today's FIFA President said "The future of football is feminine", it was more than mere lip service. It reflected a strong belief in the huge potential that women's football has to develop. Ever since, FIFA has given targeted support for the efforts of associations who offer women the same opportunities to develop as male players. Launched in 1998, FIFA's Financial Assistance Programme (FAP) introduced a requirement in 2004 for the associations and confederations to invest at least 4% of their FAP funding into women's football. This threshold was increased to 10% in 2005. On top of this commitment, FIFA also promotes the women's game in more general ways by directly financing women's matches and organising competitions and symposiums. Thanks to its development programmes, FIFA is also playing an active role in the training of administrators, coaches, referees and sports doctors.

Does an organised women's football set-up exist? no
 If so, since when?
 From which age on, players are registered?
 Women's teams (open or over 16 years)
 Women's teams (below 16 years, youth)
 National competition (or women's league)
 Regional competitions
 University competitions
 School competitions
 Futsal competitions
 National "A" team
 National youth teams: age categories

